SUPERSTITIONS

FROM CHRIS:

My sister Kathy was born on a Saturday in October, it also happened to be the 13th, which she considers her lucky day! Our boys, when they were still in grade school wore their P.J.'s inside out when snow was predicted. I also must admit to "knocking wood" for good luck during a conversation. I found this article regarding superstitions and their origins interesting. Happy reading and ...knock wood!

FROM SCOTT:

Anyone eat lentil soup on New Year's Eve?
