

Halloween 2020

---

Happy Halloween, friends!

Halloween 2020 may look different this year, but that doesn't mean we can't get into the holiday spirit! With the convergence of a full moon (aka blood moon and the first one on Halloween in 19 years), a blue moon, the beginning of Daylight Savings Time, and the holiday falling on a Saturday because of Leap Year, Halloween 2020 will truly be one to be remembered.

We love to see our clients and their loved ones in costume, so feel free to send pics our way and stay safe out there!
