Wanderlust!

Happy Aloha Friday! In the 1960's, this phrase was coined and a campaign began in Hawaii to allow workers to wear aloha shirts to work on Fridays. Signaling relaxation and readiness for the weekend, it was the precursor to 'casual Fridays' here on the mainland.

How are you celebrating your Aloha Friday? While none of us know what will happen next with the pandemic, what we DO know is that many of you have been making travel plans and dreaming of exotic, far away lands (Hawaii, perhaps?). We at WWA want to know where you are going! Please do share it with us so we can celebrate your future journey. In the meantime, here are some articles that piqued our interests, one for in-person travel and the other to get us to our destination 'virtually.' Aloha!
